On 22 July 1955, air activity by MiG-15s was observed from the localities of Gahro and Grinitz (about 14 km north of Finsterwalde). Five MiG-15s practiced low-level attacks on an area north of the Gahro-Grinitz road. Each aircraft approached the area two times and fired 5 to 6 rounds. The MiG-15s departed individually in a southern direction.

A wooden watch tower was located about 2 km north of the Gahro-Grinitz road and 1.5 km north of the training area.

Comment. The ground attack regiment stationed at Finsterwalde airfield was re-equipped with MiG-15s. The number of MiG-15s has not yet been determined.
